FROM THE SAME EGG.

Queer Case Reported From a Farm in Massachusetts.

From the Boston Transcript: A rather unusual sight was witnessed recently during a visit to a poultry farm near the "Heart of the Commonwealth." Two chickens from the same egg are here, and as they have already lived five weeks and are apparently as well as any of the others, the chances are that they will grow up and become healthful members of poultry society. The owner says he has already received an offer of $25 for the pair, but prefers to keep the chickens. His attention was called to them first when he saw two bills trying to break out through the shell. The egg containing the twins was carried into the house, the shell was carefully removed and the two infant chickens were given the first sight of the world. They were wrapped up in cotton batting and placed in the oven of the kitchen stove and kept there for some time. For the first three weeks they were not allowed to go out of doors, and were fed on the malted milk and brandy served to them from a medicine dropper. The little fellows are now strong and able to look after themselves and run about in a large yard with 100 or more of their relatives.

One peculiarity about these chickens, who, by the way, are of the variety known as Buff Brahmas, is their extreme excitableness. They have nothing whatever to do with the others and are constantly together. When one is seen, the other is sure to be within a foot or two of it. If one of them is picked up, or separated from the other, both start to calling to each other, and keep this up until the one which has been taken up has been placed on the ground. Then they immediately "join forces" and start off on a foraging trip.

The owner of this remarkable pair of chickens says that he has written to the publishers of two poultry magazines and has received word that he has been particularly fortunate in keeping these twins alive as long as he has. Instances of two chickens from the egg have been reported before, but it has never been proved, so it is said, that they lived more than seven or eight days.

MICHIGAN ANTI-TRUST LAW.

Stringent Provisions of a Bill Recently Signed by Gov. Pingree.

The Sayer Anti-Trust bill, which will be made a law by Gov. Pingree's signature, is sweeping in its provisions.

It declares unlawful every sort of partnership, corporation, combination or agreement designed to increase or reduce prices of output, restrict trade or prevent competition in manufacturing, transportation, sale or purchase of any merchandise, produce or commodity. Every such transaction is declared to be a conspiracy against trade, and the persons, firm, or corporation concerned are subject to severe penalties. Michigan corporations will be proceeded against for the forfeiture of their franchises, and foreign corporations will be deprived of their right to do business in Michigan. In addition, the offending corporation is liable to a fine of from $50 to $2,000 and the principal manager, director, agent, servant or employer thereof to imprisonment for one year. Each day's continuance of the violation is made a separate offense. Further than this every person, firm, partnership, corporation or association of persons who shall violate the law is to forfeit $50 for every day the violation shall continue and persons injured in their business by the trust may recover judgment for twice the damages sustained.

Rich Ohioan Is Able With This to Show the Surgeons Where to Cut for a Tumor.

Chicago, July 4.—The inner walls of the stomach of James C. Forster, a wealthy lumberman of Cleveland, O., were photographed yesterday, with the result that a large tumor was discovered. Mr. Forster has left for Cleveland, taking the photograph with him, and with it, as a guide, he will be operated on in a Cleveland hospital. This is the first serviceable photograph of a stomach ever taken.

The apparatus used in taking the picture consists of a rubber tube one eighth of an inch in diameter, and about 3 feet long. At the end of the tube is a rubber bulb, the walls of which are thin as it is possible to make them, giving the bulb when inflated the appearance of a toy balloon.

The interior of the bulb is coated with a photographic emulsion, and acts as the plate on which the picture is taken. The patient is made to swallow the bulb, which is then inflated by means of air blown into the tube, until the bulb entirely fills the stomach, its flexible sides conforming to the walls of the stomach. An X-ray exposure is then made, the tube is withdrawn, and the picture on the thin rubber is developed as in ordinary X-ray photographs.

TO ENLIST VOLUNTEERS.

Plans Laid for the Recruiting of 15,000 Men.

New York, July 3.—A special from Washington says:

Having heard from Gen. Otis that he needs 6,838 men to fill up the regular regiments and about 2,000 men for the two volunteer regiments he was authorized to enlist, orders will be issued tomorrow for the enlistment of 15,000 men.

It is confidently predicted that by August 1 the eight regiments to be organized in this country and the 2,000 men required for the two volunteer regiments at Manila will be ready to proceed to Otis' aid. In order to put the volunteers in an effective condition as rapidly as possible, eight military posts, one for each regiment, will be located, to which recruits will be sent, as follows:

Plattsburg barracks, New York; Fort Thomas, Kentucky; Columbus barracks, Ohio; Fort Sheridan, Illinois; Leavenworth, Kansas, and the Presidio, California, and probably Fort Crook, Nebraska, and Vancouver barracks.

TOY PISTOLS AND FIREWORKS

What Happened to the Crowd That Thought a Cracker Was Not Loaded.

An unknown man emptied the Haymarket saloon yesterday afternoon by placing a "phony" cracker on the bar and lighting the fuse. Before the laugh at the joke had subsided, another man entered and stood a large fire cracker on the bar. Every body gave the new-comer the "ha-ha," and he withdrew hastily. A moment afterward a terrific explosion shattered the beer glasses in the vicinity and drove the occupants of the place stunned and blinded to the door. Mike Flaherty, John Stubbs and John O'Donnell were all more or less burned. Dr. McCollough dressed their injuries.

The old story of the boy and the toy cannon was repeated in the case of Dominick Raziella yesterday. The lad loaded the miniature war engine and then looked in the front end while he lighted the fuse. Dominick received several powder burns about the face and may lose the sight of his right eye.

Our baby has been continually troubled with colic and cholera infantum since his birth, and all that we could do for him did not seem to give more than temporary relief, until he tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Since giving that remedy he has not been troubled. We want to give you this testimonial as an evidence of our gratitude, no that you need it to advertise your meritorious remedy—G. M. Law, Keokuk, Iowa. For sale by R. C. Hardwick, Druggist.

HAS NATURE WARNED YOU?

Nature herself clads in the early garbs of spring, blossoms forth trees and flowers causing the dependent chord to vibrate to this, the most delightful of all, springtime and how do you feel? Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. A. Bush, clerk of Hotel Doradine, Providence; R. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by R. C. Hardwick, Druggist.
